Studio Sissi is an advertising agency that works with clients to tell their unique stories through bold and eye-catching graphics, logos, and motion design, lifting their brands up to stand out and captivate new audiences.

For their headquarters in Belgium, Arc ripples across a statement wall in an open, shared workspace. The wall features Studio Sissi's signature color in 575 Salbei and greets guests and clients with a playful atmosphere that encourages creativity and collaboration. Custom-designed to feature the company's logo, Arc makes a fun statement while helping to soften the sound where the team comes together to collaborate on projects.
